

RIDING FORWARD TSA TRAINING & DEVELOPMENT PACKAGE SUPPORTED CURRICULUM REVIEW

Riding Forward TSA offers a unique training opportunity to support improvement through a PAIRED CURRICULUM AUDIT & REVIEW within your school

Ofsted have now recognised what we have always known - that at the heart of a successful school is the curriculum. This package is suitable for those schools in the Ofsted window and / or schools who are wanting to review and refine their curriculum provision - with a focus on: INTENT - IMPLEMENTATION - IMPACT

VENUE, DATES & TIMES

This package is delivered in your school on a mutually agreed date.

FOCUS OF THE TRAINING PACKAGE

Here are some questions for you to consider:

- Do you have a clear set of aims and values that underpin your curriculum?
- Does your curriculum have a 'personality'? How is it tailored to meet the needs of your pupils?
- How visible is your ethos? How does it promote SMSC and British Values?
- How well are you evidencing learning and progress in the foundation subjects?
- Can all your subject leaders talk about the profile of their subject across the school?

OUTLINE OF THE TRAINING & DEVELOPMENT PACKAGE

This is a bespoke package tailored to the needs of your school. It includes the following:

- Pre-visit audit and review of the curriculum information on your school's website
- In school visit based on an agreed focus, looking particularly at how well you are showcasing a rich, broad and exciting curriculum in your school.
- Oral feedback included on the day, with written feedback being supplied after the school visit.

COURSE LEADERS

Helen Ross, Experienced Educational Consultant, Advisor and recent Headteacher.

COST & BOOKING

The cost of the training package is £450 for alliance schools, and £500 for non-alliance schools.

If the curriculum is a current priority or focus in your school and you would like Helen to work with you to audit and evaluate your curriculum provision, please contact Jenny Lines, Teaching School Business Manager. Telephone 01482 679139

jlines@molescroftprimary.net

